Panguni fest: the flag is hoisted, grand fest planned

By Our Staff Reporter

At the stroke of dawn on Friday, March 19, the campus of Sri Kapali Temple resounded to the music of the nagaswaram as the kodiyetram rituals began here, marking the start of the annual Brahmotsavam for this year.

A good number of people were in attendance and many of them and the priests were wearing masks.

Later, Lord Kapali made his first Brahmotsavam procession around the Mada streets, in two years.

On March 18, at noon-time the ritual visit and offerings to the grama devathai, Kolavizhi Amman was made by the Sri Kapali Temple team. Since the temple's EO was on leave, the EO of the Thiruverkadu temple, Lakshman, did the honours. Late at night, was the procession of Lord Vinayaka. It got going at about 9.30 p.m. and went around the Mada veedhis.

FEST REGULATIONS

A senior police officer has told Mylapore Times that some regulations have been put in place for the Brahmotsavam in view of the pandemic situation.

Temperature check of all visitors at entrance, mandatory wearing of mask, no food distribution on arubathumoo-var day, no archanai / aarathi stops on the day of the ther / chariot and restricted entry into temple on the arubathumoo- var and ther days.

Meanwhile, over the temple's public address system, messages asking people to wear masks are being broadcast through the day.

Traffic diversions will be effected on Mada streets and R. H. Road on all days of major processions.

VINCENT'S JOTTINGS

By VINCENT D' SOUZA

Must we take the jab on our left arm or on the right? Give me your tip, if you have taken the vaccine. And if I feel skin irritation, must I apply some kind of cream? Or look the other way? Tell me more. And if I develop fever, do I pop in Crocin or sleep it off? Tell me all you know.

There are hundreds of selfies and much gyan on the jab experience. And there are dozens of stories swirling around that keep people away from the clinics.

The figures, as always, hide the real story. The stats tell us how many took the jab this far. They don't tell you that a whole lot of communities have kept away and do not intend to be injected.

The stats are also saying that virus cases are rising in Chennai. And they are going up slowly but steadily in the Mylapore area under the Teynampet zone of GCC.

Why is this happening?

Because the masks are off and people are jolly, inserting themselves in large crowds - at religious places and festival events, in the markets and banks, in campuses.

And why isn't everybody eligible, taking the jab?

Because the communication has failed badly, so much so that colourful stories have embedded deeply in the minds of many people and believe me, in the minds of educated and well-off people.

Yes, as a small survey we did in the colonies located off the Marina shows, of the 32 senior people we spoke to, none wanted to take the jab. And would not take it even in the near future.

The state has not made a concerted effort to take the vaccine story to all corners of our neighbourhoods; and now, the colored stories have sunk in, like the oosi in your arm!

And, would people care to travel 1/2 kms, to a health centre to get a jab or can the GCC bring the clinic to KVB Gardens and Mullima Nagar and Ambedkar Bridge and make life easy?

By the way, are there masks with an inbuilt fan? Need it this summer. Chinese product, no problem.

LETTERS FROM READERS

Letters to the Editor must carry the complete postal address of the correspondent.

Two restaurants create noise, trouble residents

Two restaurants came up in the past two years on the TTK Road just off the flyover. One is a restaurant cum bar, which started around two years ago, and was closed down during COVID, and was also apparently unable to procure a licence for the bar. Both have their exhaust chimneys that veer away, and are fitted close to our apartment block.

These chimneys create a continuous noise - seniors are affected.

One restaurant's chimney faces our bedrooms, and is in a building that seems to have totally violated the rules. Below, eight giant ACs rise above our compound wall and there is a cooking gas bank on the rear strip that has little access.

Last year, we complained to the Corporation and CMDA - nothing happened. On a complaint to Teynampet police, the owner of one place has offered to do 'something' to reduce the exhaust noise. We are waiting, fingers crossed.

The other restaurant was sealed by the police a month ago for the ruckus their clients created on the street one midnight. Wonder how their kitchen has started to function again.

We want CMDA, GCC and police to act on this issue.

Merging banks and woes of customers

A bank I had an account in merged with another. We were assured there would be no problem.

Still we had to inform some people concerned of the change in IFSC code, apply for new cheque books and pass books. So far all was good.

We were also told that our cards would be valid till their expiry date. But it transpires they are not. While making a payment from home, my payment did not go through. When I called the bank, I was informed that I have to go there and get the card linked to my current account.

Just imagine if this had happened to me outside the home... my embarrassment and inconvenience would have been ghastly.

Is it not up to the bank to alert customers when such significant changes are made?

After the merging of the banks, we had to wait for a long time to get our new cheque book for our (joint) account, almost a month, which we had been told, would be delivered by post.

When it was finally delivered, the cheque book had only one name printed. When we called the bank, they said it is the mistake of the printing department in Bangalore. Fine.

But how do we use it? Bank tells us that either account holder can safely use it.

But I dread to think what will happen when the account holder whose name is not printed finally uses it.

Vaccination: bouquet for UPHC

I went to the UPHC San Thome at 14A, Appu 2nd Lane on 9.3.2021 and got myself vaccinated and was fully satisfied and felt happy about the arrangements they made.

The staff, nurses and doc are treating the persons coming for vaccination nicely.

MY STORY

Introducing Carnatic music to first-timers

By S. SAKETHARAMAN

This is the 25th year since I started performing concerts. (My guru Lalgudi Jayaraman sir arranged for my debut concert at Sri Krishna Gana Sabha in 1996).

As a musician, I started thinking of how I could give back to society, besides performing concerts. I felt an urge to introduce Carnatic music to first-timers. To a large extent, Carnatic music is being projected as an elitist, complex art form. I decided to engage with students in a contemporary way. The way this art form is taught, has to be revamped with engaging innovative techniques to attract more people.

And thus, my music school Kala Shiksha was born.

Charity begins at home. I am an alumnus of P. S. Senior Secondary School. I thought - let me start from the place where I studied. I presented the idea of Kala Shiksha to the school management. The principal, Revathi Parameswaran and correspondent, Gopalakrishnan were very supportive.

I recruited seasoned music teachers, who have an excellent musical lineage as well as ability to engage with the children effectively. We designed a curriculum for 2th - 6th standard students including RTE students, with a mission to attract students to the art form itself.

For example, students were told stories about the compositions, to make the classes interesting. Our teachers even encouraged students to draw, colour and dress up like gods and goddesses during virtual classes to enthuse the children. The results surprised us. The parents gave excellent feedback. Introvert students opened up and started blossoming.

We have about 250 students now in the Kala Shiksha family, as we adopted one more school in the outskirts of Chennai. We have started Appreciating Music Concerts sessions, wherein the students are asked to listen to concerts and present to their teachers what they learnt. I take pride in being inclusive and ask the students to attend concerts of all banis.

I plan to take our students on a fun tour to museums where instruments are showcased and encourage them to attend heritage tours.

The syllabus needs to be customised for each school depending on the demographics. I am constantly looking out for like-minded teachers who can help the children cross-over to Carnatic music.

The intent of this music school is to serve and not commercialise. That said, we fix a nominal price per student, as that will make the students and the parents more serious about the classes. We also need to respect our seasoned teachers.

● Saketharaman is a Carnatic music artiste and resides in Alamelumangapuram.

Dharmathma awards presented to Vedic scholars

By D. S. Rajagopalan

Sringeri Jagadguru Sanathana Dharma Vidya Samithi presented Dharmathma awards to four eminent vidwans Bhuvanagiri Anantha Sharma (Vedantham) Sengalipuram Mahagnicith Kesava Vajap-eyar (Pravachanam), Thanjavur Srinivasa Sarma (Harikatha) and to Panchapagesa Bhagavathar (Namasankeerthanam).

This event was held recently at Sringeri Pravachana Mandiram. Swami Vidyashankara Saraswathy, Sri Vidyanarasimha Ashram, Nerur presided and presented the awards. The awards carried a purse of Rs. 25000 each and a gold medal.

Grants of Rs. 10000 each were given to five Veda pandits Harihara Subramanian, R. Srinivasa Sastry of Tirupathi, Narayana Sastry, Shankara Sastrigal and V. Balaji Divedi.

Vedanta student Suresh Krishna was extended a scholarship of Rs. 15000 as well.

Earlier, Raja Annamalaipuram Bhakta Jana Sabha president A. Ramji welcomed the guests, spoke on the noted philanthropist and founder Dharmathma Dr. V. Vaidyasubrama- nia Iyer who instituted these awards.

Office-bearers of the Samithi, V. Vaidy- anathan and V. Jayaraman were present.

CUB BRANCH HAD TO SHUT DOWN. IT IS STRICT ON PROTOCOLS.

When City Union Bank on East Mada Street, Mylapore had to close down for a day recently after a staffer was tested positive, it was the second time it did so at pandemic time – it shut shop last year as the virus peaked.

Now, manager Narayanan and his team are making sure all protocols are followed strictly. “We ask customers who wear kerchiefs to come in with masks,” the manager said.

Also, all chairs at desks here have been removed, the cash- iers wear gloves and the guard at the gate asks all people to put on masks before stepping in.

But there are challenges – seniors dropping in often to update passbooks, follow-up on deposits and withdraw money.

“Though all these services can be done online and at the ATM, seniors are keen to visit us and we cannot ask them not to come here,” says Narayanan.

School teachers get the jab as a group

A group of staff mem- bers of Sir Sivaswami Kalalaya Sr. Sec School in Mylapore were admin- istered the Covid-19 vaccine at Agarwal Hospital on 13 March.

The procedure was well organised and the entire team at the hospital ensured that the process was smooth, comfortable and fast, said a senior team leader at the school.

ELECTIONS 2021

■ DAILY REPORTAGE at www.mylaporetimes.com

MYLAPORE: MANY CANDIDATES FILE PAPERS

There was a flurry of activity at the Mylapore tahsildar office on Greenways Road in R. A. Puram on March 17.

Candidates contesting in the Mylapore constituency in the TN Assembly elections, filed their nominations.

Among them were AIADMK's R. Nataraj, DMK's T. Velu, MNM's Sripriya (seen in photo) and AMMK's G. Karthik.

All of them followed poll regulations.

G. Karthik

CANDIDATE CONTRACTS VIRUS

Velachery constituency candidate Santhosh Babu of MNM declared on Thursday that he has contracted the virus, is now getting treated at King's Institute and will campaign online.

Santhosh Babu

ON CAMPAIGN TRAIL

AIADMK candidate for Mylapore, R. Nataraj began his street-based campaign last Saturday, saying this being amavasya day, he wanted an auspicious start to his work - he did so from Sannidhi Street, Mylapore.

DMK's Velu also got down quickly in Mylapore's colonies and had a loud reception in Nochikuppam - music and dance pepping up one morning. (photo above)

AMMK Karthik's campaign has not been sighted yet. Nor of MNM's Sripriya.

Mahalakshmi of NTK has been campaigning in inner streets.

AREAS UNDER VELACHERY CONSTITUENCY

Velachery Assembly constituency covers parts of south R A Puram, MRC Nagar and around.

The candidates are -

Congress - J. M. H. Hassan - son of former Congress MP, J. M. Haroon. Hassan contested in the Ambattur constituency in the 2016 state poll and lost.

AIADMK - ex-MLA M. K. Ashok, Velachery resident

MNM - former IAS officer Santhosh Babu.

At the GCC zonal office in Adyar, there has been much buzz with candidates filing their papers.

For Mum

The founder of a Mylapore-based NGO arranged for the distribution of 160 tender coconuts to cancer patients at Govt. Royapettah Hospital in memory of his mother on her 89th birthday.

Sekar Viswanathan says his Trust was named 'Viswajayam' in honour of his parents Viswanathan and Jayalakshmi.

Four artistes to be decorated

The 32nd annual day of ABHAI (Assn. of Bharatanatyam Artistes of India) will be held on March 20 evening at Narada Gana Sabha auditorium, Alwarpet.

The highlight is the awards event.

Prof. A. Janardhanan, Parvathi Ravi Ghantasala, M. S. Kannan and G. Narendra are to be honoured.

After the awards event, students of dance will present pieces they had learnt at training camps that ABHAI held in 2019/2020.

Roja Kannan is the president of ABHAI.

UPDATES ON THE VIRUS SCENE

VACCINE AT PVT HOSPITALS. LIST.

The jab is given for a fee.

1. Dr Agarwals, TTK Road
2. Kauvery, Alwarpet
3. Billroth, R. A. Puram
4. Apollo Spectra, MRC Nagar
5. Madras ENT Research Foundation, R. A. Puram
6. Orthomed, near Ajantha bus stop, along Royapettah flyover
7. Venkateswara, Chamiers Road
8. Trinity, Alwarpet
9. MK Specialty, DGS Dhina karan Road (near Sri Ayyappa Temple)
10. CSI Kalyani Hosptal, Dr. R. K. Salai

VACCINE AT GCC CENTRES

The vaccine is offered from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Health Centres of Chennai Corporation. Carry a valid identity card like voter card or Aadhar Card. Prior registration is not required. It is given free of cost.

This is the list of local area UPHCs.

- Dvn 122 : Teynampet UPHC, 40, K. B. Dasan Rd., Teynampet.
- Dvn 123 : Beemanampet UPHC, Multi-speciality Clinic, 29, C. P. Ramasamy Road, Alwarpet.
- Dvn 125 : San Thome UPHC, 14A, Appu 2nd Lane, Mylapore
- Dvn 126 : R. A. Puram UPHC, 17, R. K. Nagar 2nd Main Road, R. A. Puram

VIRUS RAGING

The red flag has gone up. Teynampet zone is among 5 city zones which are showing 3% plus rise in Corona cases. Mylapore falls under this zone.

NO TO THE JOB

A dipstick, informal survey done last weekend in four kuppams of San Thome and Pattinapakkam shows that almost nobody was keen to be vaccinated.

This survey was done by social worker and MT editorial trainee Kavitha Benni.

32 people, six men and the rest women were questioned. Many said they were aware of the vaccination but did not know where it was given locally; many said they would not take it. Many said that they had not suffered from Corona.

Many reasons were given as to why they do not want to get vaccinated – I am well so I don't need it. I was ill before and I will take it if I fall ill again. The salty air protects us so we don't need it. I am afraid of consequences.

People who were not questioned but chose to converse said they had not come across a vaccination awareness drive locally, others said they knew of the PHC in Mandaveli but not of the San Thome PHC in Appu Street.

A few others (below 50 years) of this area generally said that they heard that those who took the jab had pain and soreness for some days and this would discourage them when their turn came.

COMMUNITY'S POSITIVE SPIRIT

This is how a community has helped its seniors get the vaccine in a planned manner.

GRN Jeevan Bheema Enclave is on Rajasekaran Street (opp. CSI Kalyani Hosptal) and is home to a number of residents above 60 years of age. With many of them staying alone, it was a challenge to get all the people for the jab at a nearby hospital.

One of the enclave's association members then partnered with an organization, called Helpee, who linked up with another NGO and addressed the need.

Checking with a hospital closeby and making appointment slots for the seniors, arranging transportation, taking the elders in batches – Helpee team members did everything required to get all the elders in this enclave safely vaccinated.

Helpee (www.helpee.in) offers all nature of service required for the elderly.

800 kgs of e-waste carted away from camp in R. A. Puram

By Our Staff Reporter

The e-waste collection camp held on Feb 21 under the banner of R K Nagar community association was a “big success” if you go by what one head of this community said.

800 kilos of waste was carted away by a private recycling agency. The camp was organised by the R. K. Nagar community. Among the items that were junked here were old radio and transistor sets, water coolers and iPads.

Says K L Bala Subramaniam, one of the community heads, “We had people from Nandanam and CIT Colony dropping off waste.

I would have wanted more from residents from our area though.”

1970 batch of P. S. High School; golden jubilee meet on Mar.20

The 1970 batch of P S High School in Mylapore will formally celebrate the alumni's golden jubilee year on March 20.

Says S. Easwaran, co-ordinator of this group, “Actually we were supposed to celebrate it last year. Because of this pandemic we could not do that. So we are doing now at the school at the Centenary hall.”

But the core group strove to search for and connect with as many ‘old’ students to enlarge the group. Some 60 old boys connected.

They contributed to set up the computer lab for the school as their main project (photo used here is of a past meeting of the alumni).

The March 20 event will be a formal one to signal the jubilee of this group.

Violin concert: Mar.20

Shreya Devnath will lead a Carnatic music violin concert on Saturday, March 20, 6.30pm onwards at Ragasudha Hall, Luz Avenue. Alongside are Delhi Sairam on mridangam and K V Gopalakrishnan on kanjira.

This event is hosted by Shri Ariyakudi Music Foundation and ICCR. Open to all but pandemic protocols to be followed.

THE NEW KALVI VARU STREET

By Our Staff Reporter

Kalvi Varu Street is getting a new look. No, this is not part of the Smart City Project.

It is an attempt by a band of people, including the Mylapore MLA, to make the public space the way it should be - well-laid streets and pavements, open spaces and some color.

The 'new' Kali Varu Street seems to have to wait till Assembly elections are over - work seems suspended now. R. Nataraj, the MLA was keen to see a few projects he has backed be opened to the community as soon as possible.

The first plans for this street that runs alongside the Buckingham Canal, Mylapore (behind the Vidya Mandir campus' east side) were drawn by architect Kavitha Selvaraj. GCC and the MLA had a few rounds of discussions and GCC finalised a plan and signed in a contractor who has worked on a few Smart City Projects.

The Covid situation and the usual hiccups and drags delayed this project.

The contractor says 70% of the work is over. What is left is building a wall and fence alongside the Canal side and developing a small park at the Kutchery Road junction (west end).

What the project cannot tackle though is the scourge of mosquitoes that breed all year round in the dirty, stagnant waters of the Canal.

CRIBBING

Residents on this street, on Balakrishnan Street and around have some cribs.

■ It appears that the road space is narrower and will not take the heavy traffic flow. But GCC engineers say the road worth is 7.2 mts (as per IRC standard) and can handle two-way traffic too. Activists say people must demand for more pavement space and use it than be vocal and seek more vehicular space.

■ Wide pavements are encroached upon so why continue laying them? How can kids play and people exercise off a busy road? Engineers say it is for residents to take ownership of public spaces and collaborate with local officials to keep off hawkers, auto workshops, cattle, etc.

■ Nothing has been done to tackle mosquito menace.

TIPS FOR COMMUNITY ACTION

Heads of some active Residents' Welfare Associations (RWAs) say residents must group up, get to know local officials as well as civic rules well, and collaborate.

Says Bala Subramaniam of R. K. Nagar Assn., "If the community joins hands and relates to officials overseeing the local area, much can be done. Officials are positive if residents work hand-in-hand closely."

WHAT'S NEW?

Wide sidewalks, smart street lighting, designated parking, two-way vehicular movement, playthings in one zone and an open-air gym for people to exercise on one side.

A small green space at the Kutchery Road end, a protective wall and fence along the Canal side.

PAINT THAT WALL

Can the wall being built along the Canal sport a local color and theme? Architect Kavitha says yes. She has been tossing the idea of highlighting visuals of well-known people who have resided in this zone. Ideas of illustrating life on the Canal - boats, transporting, Thaneerthurai market buzz can also find a place on the wall. Up to GCC to take this forward.

KALVI VARU MEANS ?

Anybody knows what Kalvi Varu stands for? Why is the street named so?

Can senior P. S. (North) School alumni shed some light?

Has it got to do anything to do with the Canal?

Farmer-producer company's first organic outlet in Chennai

By Bama Ranganathan

A group of more than 750 farmers, from the Erode-Namakkal-Coimbatore area got together in 2015 and formed a society to promote organic farming.

Called Uyir Organic Farmers Society, this group has trained many farmers in the methods of organic farming. To help the farmers market their produce, the society has also set up shops across Coimbatore, Erode and Chennai. One such shop, Uyir Organics, has been functioning in East Abiramapuram since 2015.

The franchisee here is S. Sathishkumar. From a farming background, he says he has always been keen about agriculture and organic food. On this store he says, "We have 65 direct products and each one has an organic certificate."

From these products, they make other items taking the total offering to 500. "We have organic kambu from which we make tasty kambu murukku. We also offer sweets like peanut burfi, karupatti mysorepak and many others', he goes on.

Household grocery items like grains and pulses; flours; cold pressed oils can all be found here. Fresh vegetables come directly from the farms they are grown, every other day. "Since we source them from the farmers themselves, we get limited quantities and our vegetables are always fresh", says Sathishkumar.

The group also offers ideas and consultations to people who are interested in setting up their own organic gardens. "There is a lot of interest nowadays in people living in the city to grow and eat good, clean and healthy food.

Since this is our motto also, we are very happy to help people out in this regard", says Sathishkumar.

The one thing that you should definitely try at this store is the ghee, according to Sathishkumar. "Made from desi cow milk, with the fat removed from slowly boiled milk, it tastes delicious", he says.

The store is located at 4, 3rd Street, East Abiramapuram. (next to East Abiramapuram ration shop). Ph: 8754781144. Free delivery within Mylapore.
