

JOURNALISM TRAINING FOR TEENS.

MYLAPORE TIMES' SUMMER HOLS PROJECT

Open to school students: Class 9 - 12. Must dedicate two hours daily for 10 days. To do field work and write news stories, shoot pictures. Helps if you have a cycle to move around.

Chosen students will be guided by the Editor of Mylapore Times to undertake assignments across the Mylapore - San Thome - R. A. Puram zone. To attend community meetings, go around campuses, check out stores and markets, go around parks/ playgrounds / temples, etc. Talk to residents, fisherfolk, police, hawkers, shop owners, youths . . . Shoot pictures / videos of football camps / temple fests / campus events / community celebrations, etc.

Once field work is done, you go home and file the stories and send photos/videos the same hour.

Those who do well earn Certificates of Appreciation.

To apply - Mail 5 lines on any recent event held in and around your campus / colony. Add four lines about yourself (school, home address and key interests). Mail to - mytimesedit@gmail.com. Subject line; Summer J Course. Limited openings.

The project runs through April and May.
